

Molly Cashman

Email: cashmanmo@gmail.com

Instagram: molly._.cart

Education

- Maryland Institute College of Art, set to graduate 2026
 - Recipient of Merit Scholarship and on the Dean's List
 - Participated in MICA study abroad program for art history and the Venice Biennale in summer of 2024

Skills

- Woodworking- Band saw, chop saw, hand-router and jigsaw, as well as nail and staple guns.
- Printmaking- A variety of copper etching and intaglio techniques, and linocut
- Ceramics- throwing, sculpting, electric kiln firing, and some gas and atmospheric firing experience, as well as kiln maintenance and glaze mixing/formulation.
- Metalworking- welding and plasma cutter.
- Experience with Photoshop, Illustrator, Premier Pro, Lightroom, and After Effects.

Work Experience

- Teaching Assistant, Katonah Art Center, summer of 2022.
 - Assisting in handbuilding classes for children aged four to seven
 - Assisted in wheel throwing classes for tweens/teens aged eleven to fourteen
- Craft Shop Instructor, Silver Bay YMCA summers of 2023 and 2025.
 - Working in craft studio running ceramics program, instructing wheel-throwing classes, overseeing hand-building, glazing, and carrying out firings and maintenance of electric kiln.
- Teaching Assistant, Katonah Art Center, summer of 2022.
 - Assisting in handbuilding classes for children aged four to seven
 - Assisted in wheel throwing classes for tweens/teens aged eleven to fourteen

Group exhibitions

- Rooms Without Doors, 2025, In Lazarus Building, 131 W North Ave, third floor gallery.
- Collage/Assemblage and Book Arts, 2025, in Fox Building, 1303 W Mount Royal Ave. Second floor gallery.
- Portraiture, 2025, in Main Building, 1300 W Mount Royal Ave. Third floor.
- Case's Portals, 2024, in Fox Building, 1303 W Mount Royal Ave. Third floor.
- Anatomy for Artists, 2024, in Main Building, 1300 W Mount Royal Ave. Third floor.
- Smoke Break, 2023, in Main Building, 1300 W Mount Royal Ave. Third floor.